Shelby County's First Bale. The first bale of new cotton from Shell county was received yesterday by the enter prising firm of W. B. Galbreath & Co. This cotton was grown by H. M. James, and classed as low middling. It was a good staple, and yesterday was sold to E. Hobart & Co. for eleven cents per pound. The cotton was ginned by N. W. Speers, a gentleman who devotes his experience and talent to this branch of business and never fails to give satisfaction. W. B. Galbreath & Co. are among the leading and most reliable cotton factors of the south.
